Welcome to All

Community in a Time of Physical Distancing

Welcome to St. Paul’s Burlingame! We are glad that you are able to join us for this time of prayer and worship. Together we hear God’s Word and listen for the voice of the Spirit. We ground ourselves in the poetry and beauty of shared songs, and we pray for the needs and concerns in our hearts. A special Sacred Circle story for children can be found each week on our YouTube channel by clicking here.

If you would like to add names to our prayer list you can email mtorres@StPaulsBurlingame.org to contact Michelle. If you would like to find out more about St. Paul’s please email tskilling@StPaulsBurlingame.org to contact our Rector, Thomas Skillings. We would like to connect with you!

You can follow along with the online service using this bulletin with people’s responses in bold type. If not otherwise noted, the online Liturgy is drawn from the expansive language Holy Eucharist approved by the Episcopal Church’s 79th General Convention in 2018.

Hymn 287  “For all the saints,” Sine Nomine

The Collect for the Day

Celebrant  God be with you.
People  And also with you.
Celebrant  Let us pray.

A moment of silence is observed as we prepare our hearts for prayer.

God of unfailing light, in your realm of glory, the poor are blessed, the hungry filled, and every tear is wiped away. Strengthened by this vision, may we follow in the way of holiness that your son may be known in life and death, through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, one God, forever and ever. Amen. Amen.
The Liturgy of the Word

The First Lesson

Revelation 7: 9-17

After this I, John, looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice, saying,

"Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!" And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, singing,

"Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen."

Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, "Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?" I said to him, "Sir, you are the one that knows." Then he said to me, "These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

"For this reason they are before the throne of God,
and worship him day and night within his temple,
and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them.
They will hunger no more, and thirst no more;
the sun will not strike them,
nor any scorching heat;
for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd,
and he will guide them to springs of the water of life,
and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

Reader   Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.
People   Thanks be to God.
Psalm 34:1-10, 22

Anglican Chant

Quartet: Elizabeth Kimble, Akane Ota, David Kurtenbach, Jason Harvey

1 I will bless the LORD at all times; *
   his praise shall ever be in my mouth.

2 I will glory in the LORD; *
   let the humble hear and rejoice.

3 Proclaim with me the greatness of the LORD; *
   let us exalt his Name together.

4 I sought the LORD, and he answered me *
   and delivered me out of all my terror.

5 Look upon him and be radiant, *
   and let not your faces be ashamed.

6 I called in my affliction and the LORD heard me *
   and saved me from all my troubles.

7 The angel of the LORD encompasses those who fear him, *
   and he will deliver them.

8 Taste and see that the LORD is good; *
   happy are they who trust in him!

9 Fear the LORD, you that are his saints, *
   for those who fear him lack nothing.

10 The young lions lack and suffer hunger, *
    but those who seek the LORD lack nothing that is good.

22 The LORD ransoms the life of his servants, *
    and none will be punished who trust in him.

The Holy Gospel

Matthew 5:1-12

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:

"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.
Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.
Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.
Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.
Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.
Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.
Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness’ sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you."

After the reading, the reader says

Reader  Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.
People  Thanks be to God.
A Prayer for Mission

Said by all

Gracious and loving God, help us this day to understand and celebrate your dream for the world, to be transformed in Jesus’ love, and to use our gifts to make a difference for others. Amen.

The Sermon

The Rev. Thomas Skillings

Anthem

Saints bound for heaven, arr. Alice Parker (b. 1925) and Robert Shaw (1916-1999)

Elizabeth Kimble, Akane Ota, David Kurtenbach, Jason Harvey

Our bondage it shall end by and by.

From Egypt's yoke set free, Hail the glorious jubilee,

And to Canaan we'll return by and by.

Our Deliv'rer He shall come by and by.

And our sorrows have an end With our three-score years and ten,

And vast glory crown the day by and by.

And when to Jordan's floods we are come.

Jehovah rules the tide And the waters He'll divide,

And the ransom'd host shall shout we are come.

Then with all the happy throng we'll rejoice.

Shouting Glory to our King, Till the vaults of heaven ring,

And thro' all eternity we'll rejoice.

The Prayers of the People

The Leader and People pray responsively.

Claiming our place in the mystical body of your Son Christ, we join in prayer with your blessed saints.

We pray for the church around the world, and our local community of St. Paul’s. Help us live in the hope of eternity by being fully present to our current times. Give us our purpose as your beloved community to act, emboldened with your love even in the midst of sometimes stifling limitations.

God, our creator,

Hear our prayer.

We give thanks for this wonderful world you have given to all people. Guide and inspire all people to be good stewards of the gifts of land, sea and sky. Give us the courage to live for the healing of the earth.

God, our redeemer,

Hear our prayer.

We pray for our nation in these challenging and anxious times. Guide our leaders to make wise choices for all people, especially the vulnerable who need your protection and care. As we prepare to seek new representatives, give us the grace and wisdom to use our power of voting for the good of all.

God, our sustainer,

Hear our prayer.
Help us claim our place with your saints to create communities that will protect the poor, stand up for the vulnerable, advocate for those who are not seen and heard, and listen to everyone’s voice.

God, our creator,

Hear our prayer.

We pray for those who need your healing among us, especially those our Parish Prayer List:

Banafsheh, Laura Cope, Keith Davey, Charles Vaughn, John & Arline Borgeson, Nate Price, Allen Mulliken, Michele Blair, Carole Schaffer, Nan Cusulos, Tom Breice, Renee & Bernd Kemme, Wally Klevesahl, Mimi Butler, Dylan, Jim Prescott, Murdoff family especially Charlotte, Please add your own prayers at this time.

Silence is kept.

God our sustainer,

Hear our prayer.

We remember those who have died:

For Al Ward, Ray Munoa and Keith Davey.

Silence is kept.

The Lord’s Prayer

We gather all the concerns on our hearts, spoken and silent, and now we say aloud as one voice, the prayer Jesus taught us to pray:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.
Anthem

Teen Quartet: Abigail Akers, Natalie Dias, Lily Hartley, Séraphée de Labaca

Come down, Angels, trouble the water.
Let God’s saints come in.
I love to shout, I love to sing, I love to praise my heavenly King.
I think I hear the Sinner say, My Savior taught me how to pray.
Come down, Angels, trouble the water.
Let God’s saints come in.

MUSIC NOTE by Susan Jane Matthews, Director of Music

_I sing a song of the saints of God . . . and there’s not any reason – no, not the least, why I shouldn’t be one too._
~ Lesbia Scott

I sing a song of the saints of God. In the wonderful whimsy of Lesbia Scott’s 1929 English hymn written for her own children, we are reminded on All Saints’ Sunday that with the grace of God, we too can walk in the steps of the saints of God. In the first and second stanzas of her hymn, Scott catalogues saints of God that have gone before: a doctor (Luke), a queen (Margaret of Scotland), and a shepherdess on the green (Joan of Arc); a soldier (Martin of Tours), a priest (John Donne), and one slain by a fierce wild beast (Ignatius of Antioch). The third stanza tells of the many extraordinary saints surrounding us whom you may meet at ordinary places, and the saint whom you may be. The Choir School youth in grades K-6 recorded this hymn in their homes, and our fabulous engineer Elizabeth Kimble joined them together as a choir.

Anthems. The shape-note hymn _Saints bound for heaven_ looks to a jubilant gathering of saints in heaven. The staff quartet sings this anthem from St. Paul’s in a boisterous _a cappella_ arrangement by Alice Parker and Robert Shaw. Four teens of the Choir School sing an arrangement of the spiritual _Come down, Angels_ by Undine Smith Moore (1904-1989). The granddaughter of slaves, she persisted through many obstacles of life in 20th-century USA in her pursuit of a vocation as a musician to become known as the “Dean of Black Women Composers.” Undine studied at Fisk and Columbia University, and taught at Virginia State University and Carleton College. She delivered the keynote address at the first National Congress on Women in Music at New York University in March 1981. While she composed over 100 works, including spiritual arrangements, art songs, chamber music and major works for choir and orchestra, only 26 were published during her lifetime.

Undine Smith Moore was an accomplished classical pianist and improviser, as can be heard in this arrangement of the spiritual _Come down, Angels_ (1978). The Choir of St. Paul’s oeuvre is overflowing with wonderful music by Undine Smith Moore: _Is there anybody here that loves my Jesus?_; _We shall walk through the valley of peace_; _Daniel, Daniel, Servant of the Lord_; _Bound for Canaan’s Land_; and _I believe this is Jesus_.

A Hidden Wholeness: The Journey Toward an Undivided Life
Learn About and Participate in a Circle of Trust this Fall

What is it that moves you? To action, To tears. When is it that you feel most alive and purposeful? How does the Spirit work in you that brings life to the world around you? Parker Palmer laments that so many people get distracted and forgetful in the midst of the demands of living that they cease to live from their deepest values and priorities. He bemoans that people live divided lives.

You are invited to learn about and practice ways of reconnecting the soul and your role in ways that can recapture energy and direction for your life. Palmer has created a practice of community where members create a space for others to discover, claim and live out their deepest callings and commitments.

Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. ~Matthew 5:4

In the online service for All Souls’ Sunday, four movements from Ein deutsches Requiem (A German Requiem) by Johannes Brahms (1833-1897) will be offered. This includes two new recordings: a virtual recording of IV. Wie lieblich sind deine Wohnungen (“How lovely is thy dwelling place”; Psalm 84) sung by the Choir of St. Paul’s from their homes and V. Ihr habt nun Traurigkeit (“You have now sorrow”) with soloist Natalie Dias, the latter videoed at St. Paul’s with St. Paul’s staff quartet. Archived recordings of the opening and closing choruses will be heard from All Souls’ Sunday 2018 sung by the Choir of St. Paul’s and chamber orchestra.
