The Collect for the Day

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

A moment of silence is observed as we prepare our hearts for prayer.

Great Spirit God, we give you thanks for another day on this earth. We give you thanks for this day to enjoy the compassionate goodness of you, our Creator. We acknowledge with one mind our respect and gratefulness to all the sacred cycle of life. Bind us together in the circle of compassion to embrace all living creatures and one another. Amen.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Lesson

Exodus 20:1-4, 7-9, 12-20

Then God spoke all these words:

I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery; you shall have no other gods before me.

You shall not make for yourself an idol, whether in the form of anything that is in heaven above, or that is on the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth.

You shall not make wrongful use of the name of the Lord your God, for the Lord will not acquit anyone who misuses his name.

Remember the sabbath day, and keep it holy. For six days you shall labour and do all your work.

Honor your father and your mother, so that your days may be long in the land that the Lord your God is giving you.

You shall not murder.

You shall not commit adultery.

You shall not steal.

You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

You shall not covet your neighbor's house; you shall not covet your neighbor's wife, or male or female slave, or ox, or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor.

When all the people witnessed the thunder and lightning, the sound of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking, they were afraid and trembled and stood at a distance, and said to Moses, "You speak to us, and we will listen; but do not let God speak to us, or we will die." Moses said to the people, "Do not be afraid; for God has come only to test you and to put the fear of him upon you so that you do not sin."

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

- 1 The heavens declare the glory of God, *
and the firmament shows his handiwork.
- 2 One day tells its tale to another, *
and one night imparts knowledge to another.
- 3 Although they have no words or language, *
and their voices are not heard,
- 4 Their sound has gone out into all lands, *
and their message to the ends of the world.
- 5 In the deep has he set a pavilion for the sun; *
it comes forth like a bridegroom out of his chamber; it rejoices like a champion to run its course.
- 6 It goes forth from the uttermost edge of the heavens and runs about to the end of it again; *
nothing is hidden from its burning heat.
- 7 The law of the LORD is perfect and revives the soul; *
the testimony of the LORD is sure and gives wisdom to the innocent.
- 8 The statutes of the LORD are just and rejoice the heart; *
the commandment of the LORD is clear and gives light to the eyes.
- 9 The fear of the LORD is clean and endures for ever; *
the judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether.
- 10 More to be desired are they than gold, more than much fine gold, * sweeter far than honey, than honey in the comb.
- 11 By them also is your servant enlightened, *
and in keeping them there is great reward.
- 12 Who can tell how often he offends? *
cleanse me from my secret faults.
- 13 Above all, keep your servant from presumptuous sins; let them not get dominion over me; *
then shall I be whole and sound, and innocent of a great offense.
- 14 Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight, *
O LORD, my strength and my redeemer.

Jesus said, "Listen to another parable. There was a landowner who planted a vineyard, put a fence around it, dug a wine press in it, and built a watchtower. Then he leased it to tenants and went to another country. When the harvest time had come, he sent his slaves to the tenants to collect his produce. But the tenants seized his slaves and beat one, killed another, and stoned another. Again he sent other slaves, more than the first; and they treated them in the same way. Finally he sent his son to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.' But when the tenants saw the son, they said to themselves, 'This is the heir; come, let us kill him and get his inheritance.'" So they seized him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. Now when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?" They said to him, "He will put those wretches to a miserable death, and lease the vineyard to other tenants who will give him the produce at the harvest time."

Jesus said to them, "Have you never read in the scriptures:

'The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone;

this was the Lord's doing,
and it is amazing in our eyes?'

Therefore I tell you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that produces the fruits of the kingdom. The one who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces; and it will crush anyone on whom it falls."

When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his parables, they realized that he was speaking about them. They wanted to arrest him, but they feared the crowds, because they regarded him as a prophet.

After the reading, the reader says

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

A Prayer for Mission

Said by all

Gracious and loving God, help us this day to understand and celebrate your dream for the world, to be transformed in Jesus' love, and to use our gifts to make a difference for others. Amen.

The Sermon

The Rev. Thomas Skillings

Offertory Anthem

He's Got the Whole World in His Hand
Spiritual, arr. Margaret Bonds (1913-1972)
Sung by Choir School

*He's got the whole world in His hand.
He's got the woods and the waters in His hand.
He's got the sun and the moon right in His hand.
He's got the birds and the bees right in His hand.
He's got the beast of the field right in His hand.
He's got you and me right in His hand, He's got ev'rybody in His hand.*

The Prayers of the People

During the silence after each bidding, the people offer their own prayers, either silently or aloud.

Let us pray for the revealing of the reign of God in the world, now and always.

Intercessor and People

Creator of earth, sea, and sky, kindle the fire of your Spirit within us that we may be bold to heal and defend the earth, and pour your blessing upon all who work for the good of the planet.

God, Giver of life,
Hear our prayer.

Breath of life, receive our thanks for the beauty of our local habitat and all who dwell in it, and grant us the wisdom and will to conserve it.

Silence

God, Giver of life,
Hear our prayer.

Source of life, heal and redeem the wounds of your creation, and visit the places and people who suffer from our indifference, neglect, and greed.

Silence

God, Giver of life,
Hear our prayer.

Lover of all you have made, we thank you for the wondrous diversity of your creatures, and we pray for their well-being.

Silence

God, Giver of life,
Hear our prayer.

Author of the book of nature, receive our gratitude for places of restoration and healing, and continue to bless those places that feed our lives and spirits.

Silence

God, Giver of life,
Hear our prayer.

Wise Creator, whose works are full of mystery, give us wonder and appreciation for your creatures with whom we find ourselves in conflict.

Silence

God, Giver of life,
Hear our prayer.

Giver of all good gifts, awaken us daily to our dependence upon your bounty, and make us always thankful for the abundance of your blessings.

Silence

God, Giver of life,
Hear our prayer.

Divine Physician, heal our communities, especially those where neglect, greed, or violence inflict suffering upon people and other creatures.

Silence

God, Giver of life,
Hear our prayer.

Comforter of all the earth, sustain the people of this congregation who desire or need your presence and help [insert prayer list here].

Silence

God, Giver of life,
Hear our prayer.

We pray for those in our own community who are in need of your healing touch: Charles Vaughn, John & Arline Borgeson, Nate Price, Frank Brown, Tammy Goell, Allen Mulliken, Michele Blair, Carole Schaffer, Nan Cusulos, Tom Breice, Renee & Bernd Kemme, Wally Klevesahl, Mimi Butler, Ray Munoa, Dylan (Alli M.), Jim Prescott (Chris R.), Murdoff family especially Charlotte and those you would like to add at this time ... Please add your own prayers for those who are ill.

Silence

God, Giver of life,
Hear our prayer.

We remember those who have died, from our own community, especially Luella Dilling, grandmother of Mayah Hegre and we also remember June Lighty.

Please add the names of those you remember this day.

Silence is kept

Eternal God, the light of all who know you, come and fill our hearts with your love. Help us speak when many keep silent, help us stand for what is right when many sit in indifference. Increase our faith and charity, until your kingdom comes and heaven and earth rejoice in everlasting glory; through your Son, our Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

And now we say aloud as one voice, the prayer Jesus taught us to pray:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

He's got the whole world in His hand.

Anthem. The youth of the St. Paul's Choir School (grades K-12) offer a favorite spiritual for St. Francis Day celebrating God's loving care for all of creation. Each singer videoed themselves at home separately while listening to a master track. Thank you to engineer Elizabeth Kimble for bringing us all together as a choir. Margaret Bonds (1913-1972) studied at Northwestern University and Juilliard and with composers Florence Price and William Dawson. She was the first black person to be a soloist with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra. Composer, pianist, and teacher, she was a brilliant improviser at the piano, reflected in the composed accompaniment to this spiritual arrangement, commissioned and recorded by Leontyne Price.

Postlude. The postlude is the final movement of French Romantic composer Camille Saint-Saëns (1835-1921) whimsical celebration of God's creatures, The Carnival of the Animals - A Grand Zoological Fantasy (1886), originally for eleven players, offered here in an organ transcription. Composed by Saint-Saëns as a musical joke for his friends, verses by Ogden Nash dub the work as a "salute to feathers, furs and fins." Here is Nash's verse to precede the Final:

Now we've reached the grand finale, Animale carnivale.

Noises new to sea and land, Issue from the skillful band.

All the strings contort their features, Imitating crawly creatures.

All the brasses look like mumps From blowing umpah, umpah, umps.

In outdoing Barnum and Bailey, and Ringling, Saint-Saëns has done a miraculous thingling.

Enjoy a Quiet Moment and a Brief Walk to Recenter, Refresh and Relax at St. Paul's Labyrinth

A labyrinth is an ancient symbol that relates to wholeness. It combines the imagery of the circle and the spiral into a meandering but purposeful path. The Labyrinth represents a journey to our own center and back again out into the world. A Labyrinth can be a useful tool for prayer and meditation. It is a metaphor for life's journey. It is a symbol that creates a sacred space and place. At its most basic level, the labyrinth is a metaphor for the journey to the center of your deepest self and back out into the world with a broadened understanding of who you are. There is only one path; and it leads you on a circuitous path to the center and out again.

On Holy Ground: A Small Gathering for Prayer and Music

Sunday: October 18 ~ 3pm and 4pm
Occidental Avenue side lawn

St Paul's is looking to ease back into providing services once again by starting with small gatherings for worship, learning and prayer this fall. While our main focus will remain connecting online and through calls and notes, we will be exploring ways to be together in person. Our offerings will be on Holy Ground. Gather with members of your St. Paul's community on the Occidental Avenue side lawn next to the church for prayer, quiet and music. Outside, safely distanced, but still in each other's presence we will assemble on Holy Ground in God's presence. A brief reading of scripture, instrumental music and time to open our hearts in prayer will create space for God to move.

Through the help of a mixer and speakers, you may again enjoy the live sound of St. Paul's beloved Skinner pipe organ at the outdoor services. On October 18, special music will also be offered by cellist Haruka Ota, age 10. Haruka is a chorister at St. Paul's and studies cello with Eric Gaenslen, son-in-law of St. Paul's former associate The Rev. Sally Boelter. Haruka has made several offerings to St. Paul's online services singing with her younger sister Yuki and mother Akane, St. Paul's alto staff singer. All attending must register ahead of time online. Check your email or St. Paul's website to register.

Celebrate All Saints' Sunday

Sunday: November 1 ~ 3pm and 4pm
Occidental Avenue side lawn

On All Saints' Sunday we celebrate the witness of saints, past and present, who reflect the love and compassion of God. And we remember that all those baptized into Christ are called to be saints, literally a people set apart for God, in our own day. This joyful celebration lifts up the ways God works through ordinary people to bring the grace and the truth of God's love into the world. All attending must register ahead of time online. Check your email or St. Paul's website to register.

A Hidden Wholeness: The Journey Toward an Undivided Life Learn About and Participate in a Circle of Trust this Fall

What is it that moves you? To action, To tears. When is it that you feel most alive and purposeful? How does the Spirit work in you that brings life to the world around you? Parker Palmer laments that so many people get distracted and forgetful in the midst of the demands of living that they cease to live from their deepest values and priorities. He bemoans that people live divided lives.

You are invited to learn about and practice ways of reconnecting the soul and your role in ways that can recapture energy and direction for your life. Palmer has created a practice of community where members create a space for others to discover, claim and live out their deepest callings and commitments.

The Enneagram For Our Life in Christ Monthly Meeting via Zoom begins Wednesday, October 7

Must sign up by Oct. 7 to participate in series.

Enneagram is an ancient system which all mystical veins of the major religions have utilized as a spiritual growth tool. "Ennea" in Greek means nine and "gram" translates into ways. The Enneagram identifies nine types of thinking, feeling and behaving which once you identify as a type allows you to become more self-observant of patterns and reactivity. You can see yourself and others with clarity and compassion. Ongoing study of the Enneagram allows for a more honest self-observation, freeing us up from our ego's being in control and leading us to living from our true self, our essence, the image God has created us to be. Along with identifying and exploring these different types, we will go deeper with applying this knowledge to our spiritual journey with Jesus the Christ. From examining what prayer practice makes sense to using the scripture as a guide for our type. The group will meet monthly via Zoom beginning Wednesday, October 7. Click here to sign up. Please contact The Rev. Julie Graham, jgraham@stpaulsburlingame.org for further information.

Tuesday Teens October 13 • 4pm

Preteens (junior high school ages) and teens (high school ages) are invited to get to know other St. Paul teens. We will listen to one another's stories and learn more about ourselves and God. Zoom sessions are from 4pm to 5pm. In addition to
