Welcome to All

Community in a Time of Physical Distancing

Welcome to St. Paul’s Burlingame! We are glad that you are able to join us for this time of prayer and worship. Together we hear God’s Word and listen for the voice of the Spirit. We ground ourselves in the poetry and beauty of shared songs, and we pray for the needs and concerns in our hearts. A special Sacred Circle story for children can be found each week on our YouTube channel by clicking here.

If you would like to add names to our prayer list you can email mtorres@StPaulsBurlingame.org to contact Michelle. If you would like to find out more about St. Paul’s please email tskilling@StPaulsBurlingame.org to contact our Rector, Thomas Skillings. We would like to connect with you!

You can follow along with the online service using this bulletin with people’s responses in bold type. If not otherwise noted, the online Liturgy is drawn from the expansive language Holy Eucharist approved by the Episcopal Church’s 79th General Convention in 2018.

Opening Acclamation

Celebrant  O God, let our mouth proclaim your praise.

People  And your glory all the day long.
The Collect for the Day

Celebrant  God be with you.

People    And also with you.

Celebrant  Let us pray.

A moment of silence is observed as we prepare our hearts for prayer.

Blessed Lord, who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: Grant us so to hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.
The Liturgy of the Word

The First Lesson

Now concerning the times and the seasons, brothers and sisters, you do not need to have anything written to you. For you yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. When they say, “There is peace and security,” then sudden destruction will come upon them, as labor pains come upon a pregnant woman, and there will be no escape! But you, beloved, are not in darkness, for that day to surprise you like a thief; for you are all children of light and children of the day; we are not of the night or of darkness. So then let us not fall asleep as others do, but let us keep awake and be sober; for those who sleep sleep at night, and those who are drunk get drunk at night. But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, and put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. For God has destined us not for wrath but for obtaining salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us, so that whether we are awake or asleep we may live with him. Therefore encourage one another and build up each other, as indeed you are doing.

Reader  Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People  Thanks be to God.

Psalm 123

Quartet: Elizabeth Kimble, Akane Ota, David Kurtenbach, Jason Harvey

1  To you I lift up my eyes, *
    to you enthroned in the heavens.

2  As the eyes of servants look to the hand of their masters, *
    and the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress,

3  So our eyes look to the Lord our God, *
    until he show us his mercy.

4  Have mercy upon us, O Lord, have mercy, *
    for we have had more than enough of contempt,

5  Too much of the scorn of the indolent rich, *
    and of the derision of the proud.
Jesus said, “It is as if a man, going on a journey, summoned his slaves and entrusted his property to them; to one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away. The one who had received the five talents went off at once and traded with them, and made five more talents. In the same way, the one who had the two talents made two more talents. But the one who had received the one talent went off and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money. After a long time the master of those slaves came and settled accounts with them. Then the one who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five more talents, saying, ‘Master, you handed over to me five talents; see, I have made five more talents.’ His master said to him, ‘Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.’ And the one with the two talents also came forward, saying, ‘Master, you handed over to me two talents; see, I have made two more talents.’ His master said to him, ‘Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.’ Then the one who had received the one talent also came forward, saying, ‘Master, I knew that you were a harsh man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter seed; so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is yours.’ But his master replied, ‘You wicked and lazy slave! You knew, did you, that I reap where I did not sow, and gather where I did not scatter? Then you ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and on my return I would have received what was my own with interest. So take the talent from him, and give it to the one with the ten talents. For to all those who have, more will be given, and they will have an abundance; but from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away. As for this worthless slave, throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’”

After the reading, the reader says

Reader    Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.
People   Thanks be to God.

A Prayer for Mission

Said by all

Gracious and loving God, help us this day to understand and celebrate your dream for the world, to be transformed in Jesus’ love, and to use our gifts to make a difference for others. Amen.

The Sermon

The Rev. Julie Graham

Anthem   Lift thine eyes (Elijah), Felix Mendelssohn Bartholdy (1809-1847)
Sextet: Abigail Akers, Natalie Dias, Lily Hartley, Elizabeth Kimble, Séraphée de Labaca, Akane Ota

Lift thine eyes, O lift thine eyes to the mountains, whence cometh help.
Thy help cometh from the Lord, the Maker of heaven and earth.
He hath said, thy foot shall not be moved. Thy Keeper will never slumber.
Lift thine eyes, O lift thine eyes to the mountains, whence cometh help.

~ Psalm 121:1-4
The Prayers of the People
The Leader and People pray responsively.

I ask your prayers for God’s people throughout the world; for our Bishop Marc; and for all ministers and people. I ask you prayers for our church in our ministries of celebration as we prepare for the coming Advent and Christmas. I ask you prayers for all those at St. Paul’s engaging in conversations about race and justice. I invite your own prayers for the church.

The People offer their own prayers, either silently or aloud.

I ask your prayers for peace; for goodwill among nations; and for the well-being of all people. For all those nations beset by the COVID pandemic. Pray for peace and all who work to bring health and wholeness.

The People offer their own prayers, either silently or aloud.

I ask your prayers for the poor, the sick, the hungry, the oppressed, and all those in need.

Please add your own prayers for those in any need or trouble.

The People offer their own prayers, either silently or aloud.

I ask your prayers for the departed. Please add your own prayers for those who have died.

The People offer their own prayers, either silently or aloud.

Praise God for those in every generation in whom Christ has been honored. Pray that we may have grace to glorify Christ in our own day.

The Celebrant adds a concluding Collect.

The Lord’s Prayer

We gather all the concerns on our hearts, spoken and silent, and now we say aloud as one voice, the prayer Jesus taught us to pray:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Hymn 490

“I want to walk as a child of the light,” Houston

1 I want to walk as a child of the light.
2 I want to see the brightness of God.
3 I’m looking for the coming of Christ.

I want to follow Jesus.
I want to look at Jesus.
I want to be with Jesus.

God set the stars to give light to the world. The clear sun of righteousness, shine on my path, and when we have run with patience the race, we star of my life is Jesus.

show me the way to the Father.
shall know the joy of Jesus.

MUSIC NOTE  by Susan Jane Matthews, Director of Music

Today’s anthem and closing organ voluntary are by the German Romantic composer Felix Mendelssohn Bartholdy (1809-1847). Felix grew up in a home overflowing with the music of Johann Sebastian Bach, and he professionally played a leading role in the revival of Bach’s music, conducting a performance of the St. Matthew’s Passion in Berlin in 1829. The influence of J. S. Bach is heard in his own 1846 oratorio Elijah from which several movements have become well-known in sacred repertoire, including today’s anthem based on Psalm 121, Lift thine eyes. This trio for angels is sung from St. Paul’s by six sopranos and altos.

The Six Sonatas for Organ by Felix Mendelssohn Bartholdy appeared in print in London, Leipzig, Milan, and Paris in September 1845, closing an interregnum in major organ composition following the death of J. S. Bach in 1750. Sonata 3 consists of two movements, the first Allegro con maestoso, of which the opening march originated as a sketch for the 1829 wedding of his older sister Fanny to the artist Wilhelm Hensel. Felix though did not complete the march in time for the ceremony due to a cabriolet accident a few weeks prior in England, and Fanny composed the organ music for her own wedding. Felix returned to his memory of the sketch in 1844 when collecting together music for his Six Sonatas for Organ. Following the opening march, Felix then wove the tune of Martin Luther’s chorale Aus tiefer Not (a paraphrase of Psalm 130: From deepest woe I cry to thee; Hymn 151) into the ensuing fugal sections. The psalm tune is joyfully recast into the closing march. On November 14, 1844, Felix presented Sonata 3 to Fanny for her birthday in a volume of new organ works, fifteen years after her wedding.

Stewardship Update

As of November 11, 97 households have dedicated themselves to the financial well-being of St. Paul’s for 2021 by making a pledge commitment. Our pledge total to date from the 97 is $391,800. And, despite the challenges that surround us, the vast majority of households have been able to maintain or increase their pledge and we have received five new pledges. This is impressive indeed. Thank you!

Giving and generosity are an essential part of our shared Christian life. Giving generously can turn our hearts towards God and is an expression of God’s mercy and love to those in need.

If you have not yet had a chance to do so, we encourage you to return your pledge card today or click here to pledge online. If you would like us to resend this year’s pledge materials, please click here.

Over half of St. Paul’s 2020 operating income comes from faithful pledgers. For 2021, our total pledge income will need to increase by 17% through a combination of new pledging households and increased pledges to support the continuation of St. Paul’s current ministries and programs.

Together we can ensure that our community can continue on our Path of Faith.

With gratitude,
The St. Paul’s Stewardship Team

Giving Tree (2020 Twist):

Deadline is Sunday, November 22

There are so many families in need this year. Can we do what we’ve done in past Giving Trees by either sending a check or going online and donating to our 2020 Giving Tree or using the online links below to “shop” directly for Gift Cards and/or warm jackets and coats for children and teens online?

- Target Gift Cards — we’re using a St. Paul’s Giving Tree page for online purchases of $25 Target Gift Cards which will be given to parents during the drive-through holiday distribution for purchasing a gift/gifts for their children. Samaritan House is only 38% of the way toward the goal of 2000 cards so that each child receives one $25 gift card.

Here’s the link to the same secure online service that we used for St. Paul’s very successful Operation Backpack last summer: www.roonga.com/stpauls

- Warm jackets/coats for teens and children — all sizes are needed. You may use the St. Paul’s Giving Tree list that I’ve posted on Amazon if you wish or do your own online shopping. This link has my address in it for shipping. If you wish to use another vendor (GAP, Old Navy, Macys etc.), please do. To make it easier for you, please feel free to have what you choose shipped to Giving Tree c/o Busselle, 718 Occidental Avenue, San Mateo — note that it’s San Mateo — 94402. Click here for the link to the Amazon list that I’ve created for St. Paul’s Giving Tree. (Please note that Amazon changed the link.)

- Or, even easier, donate directly to St. Paul’s Giving Tree by going to https://www.stpaulsburlingame.org/support and scroll down to “Make an Offering” and use your credit card OR mail a check to day to St. Paul’s Church, 415 El Camino Real, Burlingame, 94010 (marked Giving Tree) and we’ll do the “shopping” for you.

Won’t you support our 30 year Giving Tree tradition today—safely for us and the more than 2000 Samaritan House families who will be helped—more than double last year’s.

Note: if this is the first time you’re hearing about St. Paul’s Giving Tree for this year and wonder what’s up, please email Tish Busselle at tnbusselle@gmail.com or refer to the November/December On the Path (formerly The Epistle) mailed out in early November.

Thank you St. Paul’s community for your generous caring and sharing again this year!

Grab and Go Advent Festival in a Bag!
Saturday, Nov. 28 • 3pm
Occidental Parking Lot

For decades, St. Paul's church held a beloved Advent Festival Coffee Hour on or right before The First Sunday of Advent in order for people to make an Advent wreath for their own personal prayers at home. This year the festival will be served up in a bag to "GRAB and GO!"

Volunteers are gathering and putting together bags of all that's needed to make a beautiful Advent wreath. Each bag will be blessed in the church by the clergy. And will include prayers to say with your wreath as you lit a candle each week.

November 29 is The First Sunday of Advent. Advent means "coming." In the Episcopal Church we observe four Sundays of intentional prayer and spiritual practice in order to prepare our hearts for the birth of the Christ Child. The Evergreen wreath with three purple and one pink candle serves as a symbol to call us into this special time of prayer and reflection. The simple ritual of lighting a candle and saying a prayer or reading helps to set aside the busyness or loneliness of this season and to receive the hope of the coming of Christ into our lives.

A VIRTUAL Christmas Eve Pageant During a Pandemic

This pandemic is relentless and has made life hard. We need some light in this darkness.

Jane Palladino and Kate Luedtke are bringing us all some great light for Christmas Eve. Along with the crew of Grace Ghoorah, Ella Giere, Annelise Vander Lugt, Will Vander Lugt, Johnny Willey and Jessica Sobolik Willey, they are working hard to bring the pageant to our homes for our Christmas Eve worship.

We are so blessed that they initiated a call to me and Pastoral Associate Jocelyn Sideco with ideas to bring the pageant to life onscreen.

Now all we need are the actors to dramatize this powerful story of HOPE.

Sign up today! ALL young people needed. For more information email jgraham@stpaulsburlingame.org to contact The Rev. Julie Graham.
