

Welcome to All

Community in a Time of Physical Distancing

Welcome to St. Paul's Burlingame! We are glad that you are able to join us for this time of prayer and worship. Together we hear God's Word and listen for the voice of the Spirit. We ground ourselves in the poetry and beauty of shared songs, and we pray for the needs and concerns in our hearts. A special Sacred Circle story for children can be found each week on our YouTube channel by clicking here.

If you would like to add names to our prayer list you can email mtorres@StPaulsBurlingame.org to contact Michelle. If you would like to find out more about St. Paul's please email tskilling@StPaulsBurlingame.org to contact our Rector, Thomas Skillings. We would like to connect with you!

You can follow along with the online service using this bulletin with people's responses in bold type. If not otherwise noted, the online Liturgy is drawn from the expansive language Holy Eucharist approved by the Episcopal Church's 79th General Convention in 2018.

The Collect for the Day

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

A moment of silence is observed as we prepare our hearts for prayer.

O Lord, mercifully receive the prayers of your people who call upon you, and grant that they may know and understand what things they ought to do, and also may have grace and power faithfully to accomplish them; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Lesson

Romans 8: 1-11

There is no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set you free from the law of sin and of death. For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do: by sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and to deal with sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, so that the just requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. To set the mind on the flesh is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace. For this reason the mind that is set on the flesh is hostile to God; it does not submit to God's law-- indeed it cannot, and those who are in the flesh cannot please God.

But you are not in the flesh; you are in the Spirit, since the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. But if Christ is in you, though the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness. If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also through his Spirit that dwells in you.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 65: 1, 9-14

Te decet hymnus

- 1 You are to be praised, O God, in Zion; ***
 to you shall vows be performed in Jerusalem.
- 9 You visit the earth and water it abundantly;
 you make it very plenteous; *
 the river of God is full of water.
- 10 You prepare the grain, ***
 for so you provide for the earth.
- 11 You drench the furrows and smooth out the ridges; ***
 with heavy rain you soften the ground and bless its increase.
- 12 You crown the year with your goodness, ***
 and your paths overflow with plenty.
- 13 May the fields of the wilderness be rich for grazing, ***
 and the hills be clothed with joy.

14 May the meadows cover themselves with flocks,
and the valleys cloak themselves with grain; *
let them shout for joy and sing.

The Holy Gospel

Matthew 13: 1-9, 18-23

Jesus went out of the house and sat beside the sea. Such great crowds gathered around him that he got into a boat and sat there, while the whole crowd stood on the beach. And he told them many things in parables, saying: "Listen! A sower went out to sow. And as he sowed, some seeds fell on the path, and the birds came and ate them up. Other seeds fell on rocky ground, where they did not have much soil, and they sprang up quickly, since they had no depth of soil. But when the sun rose, they were scorched; and since they had no root, they withered away. Other seeds fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked them. Other seeds fell on good soil and brought forth grain, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. Let anyone with ears listen!"

"Hear then the parable of the sower. When anyone hears the word of the kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what is sown in the heart; this is what was sown on the path. As for what was sown on rocky ground, this is the one who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy; yet such a person has no root, but endures only for a while, and when trouble or persecution arises on account of the word, that person immediately falls away. As for what was sown among thorns, this is the one who hears the word, but the cares of the world and the lure of wealth choke the word, and it yields nothing. But as for what was sown on good soil, this is the one who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and yields, in one case a hundredfold, in another sixty, and in another thirty."

After the reading, the reader says

A Prayer for Mission

Said by all

Gracious and loving God, help us this day to understand and celebrate your dream for the world, to be transformed in Jesus' love, and to use our gifts to make a difference for others. Amen.

The people are seated for the sermon.

The Sermon

The Rt. Rev. William E. Swing
(Seventh Bishop of California, retired)

Solo

*Father, we thank thee, William Albright (1944-1998)
Jason Harvey, bass*

*Father, we thank thee who hast planted thy holy Name within our hearts.
Knowledge and faith and life immortal
Jesus thy Son to us imparts.*

*Watch o'er thy Church, O Lord, in mercy, save it from evil, guard it still,
perfect it in thy love, unite it,
cleansed and conformed unto thy will.*

The Prayers of the People

The Leader and People pray responsively.

Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven ...

Silence

We follow the teachings of Jesus Christ and love others as ourselves. We help those who are oppressed, to defend the rights and interests of minority groups, no matter the difference stances; to act justly, to love mercy and to walk humbly with our God.

Merciful God,
Strengthen our love toward others.

Our world needs the powerful presence and guiding force of your Spirit in these troubled times. Move the heart of every person that we may attend to the poor, the unemployed and the oppressed and all who are in need. May the hurt of the world take root in the hearts of our leaders that they may legislate like we belong together.

Gracious God,
Grant us compassion for those who suffer.

We pray especially for the people in Hong Kong. The recent months have complicated already rising tension between them and China. We pray for courage and wisdom in facing a new reality amidst this time of unprecedented change.

Gracious God,
We remember those who are working hard to uphold justice.

There are many who are ill and in need of healing. Especially we remember today: Hiroyuki Mimori, Allen Mulliken, Michele Blair, Carole Schaffer, Nan Cusulos, Tom Breice, Renee & Bernd Kemme, Wally Klevesahl, Mimi Butler, Lindsay Ryan, Ray Munoa, Dylan, Jim Prescott, Murdoff family especially Charlotte and those you would like to add at this time ... Please add your own prayers for those who are ill.

Silence

Spirit of the Living God,
Heal all who are in pain and sorrow.

We remember all who are suffering emotionally and mentally with the struggle of living and working in a pandemic. Give them courage and patience, remind them to be kind and gentle with themselves and surround them with love and support.

Spirit of the Living God,
Strengthen us for these days.

We remember black communities, beloved children of God, who have for decades suffered and cried out against injustice and police brutality. Let us all rise together honoring black dignity and black citizenship.

Spirit of the Living God,
Give us wisdom and the will to respond to injustice.

We remember those who have died, from our own community. We remember especially those who have died from this pandemic and in the protests.

Please add the names of those you remember this day.

Silence is kept

Receive them into the peace of your presence. And comfort all who have lost loved ones that they may know your consolation and hope.

Lord, in your mercy, grant us the audacity of knowing and acting in ways that remind us we are all in this together.

The Lord's Prayer

In the unity of the Triune God, let us lift our voices in our common humanity to pray in the words Jesus taught:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.
