Welcome to All

Community in a Time of Physical Distancing

Welcome to St. Paul’s Burlingame! We are glad that you are able to join us for this time of prayer and worship. Together we hear God’s Word and listen for the voice of the Spirit. We ground ourselves in the poetry and beauty of shared songs, and we pray for the needs and concerns in our hearts. A special Sacred Circle story for children can be found each week on our YouTube channel by clicking here.

If you would like to add names to our prayer list you can email mtorres@StPaulsBurlingame.org to contact Michelle. If you would like to find out more about St. Paul’s please email rskilling@StPaulsBurlingame.org to contact our Rector, Thomas Skillings. We would like to connect with you!

You can follow along with the online service using this bulletin with people’s responses in bold type. If not otherwise noted, the online Liturgy is drawn from the expansive language Holy Eucharist approved by the Episcopal Church’s 79th General Convention in 2018.

The Collect for the Day

Celebrant  God be with you.
People     And also with you.
Celebrant  Let us pray.

A moment of silence is observed as we prepare our hearts for prayer.

Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us the gifts of faith, hope, and charity; and, that we may obtain what you promise, make us love what you command; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Lesson  Deuteronomy 34: 1-12

Moses went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which is opposite Jericho, and the Lord showed him the whole land: Gilead as far as Dan, all Naphtali, the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, all the land of Judah as far as the Western Sea, the Negeb, and the Plain — that is, the valley of Jericho, the city of palm trees — as far as Zoar. The Lord said to him, “This is the land of which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, ‘I will give it to your descendants’; I have let you see it with your eyes, but you shall not cross over there.” Then Moses, the servant of the Lord, died there in the land of Moab, at the Lord’s command. He was buried in a valley in the land of Moab, opposite Beth-peor, but no one knows his burial place to this day. Moses was one hundred twenty years old when he died; his sight was unimpaired and his vigor had not abated. The Israelites wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days; then the period of mourning for Moses was ended.

Joshua son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom, because Moses had laid his hands on him; and the Israelites obeyed him, doing as the Lord had commanded Moses.

Never since has there arisen a prophet in Israel like Moses, whom the Lord knew face to face. He was unequaled for all the signs and wonders that the Lord sent him to perform in the land of Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his servants and his entire land, and for all the mighty deeds and all the terrifying displays of power that Moses performed in the sight of all Israel.

Reader  Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.
People   Thanks be to God.
Psalm 90:1-6, 13-17

1 Lord, you have been our refuge *
   from one generation to another.

2 Before the mountains were brought forth,
   or the land and the earth were born, *
   from age to age you are God.

3 You turn us back to the dust and say, *
   “Go back, O child of earth.”

4 For a thousand years in your sight are like yesterday when it is past * and like a watch in the night.

5 You sweep us away like a dream; *
   we fade away suddenly like the grass.

6 In the morning it is green and flourishes; *
   in the evening it is dried up and withered.

13 Return, O LORD; how long will you tarry? *
   be gracious to your servants.

14 Satisfy us by your loving kindness in the morning; *
   so shall we rejoice and be glad all the days of our life.

15 Make us glad by the measure of the days that you afflicted us * and the years in which we suffered adversity.

16 Show your servants your works *
   and your splendor to their children.

17 May the graciousness of the LORD our God be upon us; *
   prosper the work of our hands; prosper our handiwork.
When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question to test him. “Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?” He said to him, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and first commandment. And a second is like it: ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.”

Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them this question: “What do you think of the Messiah? Whose son is he?” They said to him, “The son of David.” He said to them, “How is it then that David by the Spirit calls him Lord, saying,

“The Lord said to my Lord,
“Sit at my right hand,
until I put your enemies under your feet”?

If David thus calls him Lord, how can he be his son?” No one was able to give him an answer, nor from that day did anyone dare to ask him any more questions.

After the reading, the reader says

Reader  Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.
People  Thanks be to God.

A Prayer for Mission

Said by all

Gracious and loving God, help us this day to understand and celebrate your dream for the world, to be transformed in Jesus’ love, and to use our gifts to make a difference for others.
Amen.

The Sermon

Ms. Jocelyn A. Sideco

Anthem

Jesus bleibet meine Freude (Cantata 147), Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750)
Quartet: Elizabeth Kimble, Susan Thampi, David Kurtenbach, Jason Harvey

Jesus bleibet meine Freude,
meines Herzens Trost und Saft,
Jesus wehret allem Leide,
er ist meines Lebens Kraft,
meiner Augen Lust und Sonne,
meiner Seele Schatz und Wonne,
darum lass’ ich Jesum nicht
aus dem Herzen und Gesicht.

Jesu, joy of man’s desiring,
Holy wisdom, Love most bright,
Drawn by Thee, our souls aspiring
Soar to uncreated light.
Word of God, our flesh that fashion’d
With the fire of life impassion’d.
Striving still to Truth unknown,
Soaring, dying round Thy throne.

English text: att. Robert Bridges (1844-1930)
The Prayers of the People
The Leader and People pray responsively.

With all our hearts, and with all our souls, and with all our minds.
Let us pray as one people seeking God.

Silence

We pray for the church around the world, and our local community of St. Paul’s. We give thanks for the gifts of your love shared with one another. We give you thanks for a place to rest in you. Lead us to use our gifts to make a loving difference in this world. God our creator.

Guide us in truth and love.

We give thanks for this wonderful world you have given to all people. Guide and inspire all people to be good stewards of the gifts of earth, sea and sky. Help us to heal the earth. God, our creator.

Guide us in truth and love.

We pray for our nation in these challenging and anxious times. Guide our leaders to make wise choices for all people, especially the vulnerable who need your protection and care. As we prepare to seek new representatives, give us the grace and wisdom to use our power of voting for the good of all. God our creator.

Guide us in truth and love.

Help us create communities that will build your kingdom here on earth – communities that will protect the poor, stand up for the vulnerable, advocate for those who are not seen and heard, and listen to everyone’s voice. God, our creator.

Guide us in truth and love.

We pray for this nation that is deeply divided. May we come together for the common good and do as you have called us to do – to act justly, love mercy, and walk humbly with you through creation. God, our creator.

Guide us in truth and love.

We pray for those who need your healing among us, especially those on our parish prayer list:

Please add your own prayers at this time.

Silence is kept

The Lord’s Prayer

We gather all the concerns on our hearts, spoken and silent, in the prayer Jesus taught us as we pray:

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,

MUSIC NOTE by Susan Jane Matthews, Director of Music

Psalm. All four parts of today’s Psalm 90 were separately recorded by Don Pettengill. After recording one part, he then listened to a previously recorded part to record the next, and at last syncing all together to create a one-man choir. The opening hymn, “O God, our help in ages past,” is a paraphrase of the first five verses of this same Psalm 90 by Isaac Watts (1674-1748).

Anthem. Johann Sebastian Bach’s beloved movement from Cantata 147, Jesus bleibet meine Freude is sung with a first verse of the German text by Martin Janus (1620-1682) known to Bach, followed by the most well-known English verse, attributed to Robert Bridges (1844-1930). A literal translation of the German verse would be: "Jesus will always be my joy, My heart's comfort and essence, Jesus is there through all suffering, He is my life's strength, The desire and sunshine of my eyes, My soul's treasure and bliss; Therefore I will never let Jesus go, Neither from my heart nor from my face."

Postlude. The famous Toccata and Fugue in D minor, attributed to Johann Sebastian Bach, has become inextricably linked to the last day of October. Happy All Saints’ Eve! - more commonly known as All Hallows’ Eve or Halloween.

Celebrate All Saints’ Sunday
Sunday: November 1 ~ 3pm and 4:30pm
Occidental Avenue Lawn

On All Saints’ Sunday we celebrate the witness of saints, past and present, who reflect the love and compassion of God. And we remember that all those baptized into Christ are called to be saints, literally a people set apart for God, in our own day. This joyful celebration lifts up the ways God works through ordinary people to bring the grace and the truth of God’s love into the world.

At these services, live music for cello and piano, organ (through speakers), and a quartet of singers will be offered. The singers will be masked and safely distanced, so once again you may be inspired by choral music.

A Hidden Wholeness: The Journey Toward an Undivided Life
Learn About and Participate in a Circle of Trust this Fall

What is it that moves you? To action, To tears. When is it that you feel most alive and purposeful? How does the Spirit work in you that brings life to the world around you? Parker Palmer laments that so many people get distracted and forgetful in the midst of the demands of living that they cease to live from their deepest values and priorities. He bemoans that people live divided lives.

You are invited to learn about and practice ways of reconnecting the soul and your role in ways that can recapture energy and direction for your life. Palmer has created a practice of community where members create a space for others to discover, claim and live out their deepest callings and commitments.

How to participate:

Read:  A Hidden Wholeness by Parker Palmer
Watch:  A brief video exploring one chapter of the book a week.
Participate:  In a live Circle of Trust online each week (times TBD) to experience a community practicing ways of reconnecting the soul

Enjoy a Quiet Moment and a Brief Walk to Recenter, Refresh and Relax at St. Paul’s Labyrinth (in the parking lot)

A labyrinth is an ancient symbol that relates to wholeness. It combines the imagery of the circle and the spiral into a meandering but purposeful path. The Labyrinth represents a journey to our own center and back again out into the world. A Labyrinth can be a useful tool for prayer and meditation. It is a metaphor for life’s journey. It is a symbol that creates a sacred space and place. At its most basic level, the labyrinth is a metaphor for the journey to the center of your deepest self and back out into the world with a broadened understanding of who you are. There is only one path; and it leads you on a circuitous path to the center and out again.
