Welcome to All

Community in a Time of Physical Distancing

Welcome to St. Paul’s Burlingame! We are glad that you are able to join us for this time of prayer and worship. Together we hear God’s Word and listen for the voice of the Spirit. We ground ourselves in the poetry and beauty of shared songs, and we pray for the needs and concerns in our hearts. A special Sacred Circle story for children can be found each week on our YouTube channel by clicking here.

If you would like to add names to our prayer list you can email mtorres@StPaulsBurlingame.org to contact Michelle. If you would like to find out more about St. Paul’s please email tskilling@StPaulsBurlingame.org to contact our Rector, Thomas Skillings. We would like to connect with you!

You can follow along with the online service using this bulletin with people’s responses in bold type. If not otherwise noted, the online Liturgy is drawn from the expansive language Holy Eucharist approved by the Episcopal Church’s 79th General Convention in 2018.

The Online Sunday Service can be found in three locations:
- Our website: www.stpaulsburlingame.org
- Our Facebook page: www.facebook.com/StPaulsBurlingame
- Our YouTube Channel: www.youtube.com/StPaulsBurlingame

The Collect for the Day

Celebrant  God be with you.
People     And also with you.
Celebrant  Let us pray.

A moment of silence is observed as we prepare our hearts for prayer.

O God of grace and glory, we remember before you this day all those who have died. We thank you for giving them to us, their family and friends, to know and to love as companions on our earthly pilgrimage. In your boundless compassion, console us who mourn. Give us faith to see in death the gate of eternal life, so that in quiet confidence we may continue our course on earth, until, by your call, we are reunited with those who have gone before; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Introit  sung by choir in German

Ein deutsches Requiem, Johannes Brahms (1833-1897)
Choir of St. Paul’s & Chamber Orchestra

Selig sind, die da Leid tragen, denn sie sollen getrüstet werden.
Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

Die mit Tränen säen, werden mit Freuden ernten.
Sie gehen hin und weinen, und tragen edlen Samen,
Und kommen mit Freuden und bringen ihre Gargen.
Those who sow with tears will reap with joy.
They go forth and weep, bearing precious seeds,
And return rejoicing, bringing their sheaves.

~ Matthew 5:4; Psalm 126: 5-6

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Lesson  Wisdom 3: 1–9

The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and no torment will ever touch them. In the eyes of the foolish they seemed to have died, and their departure was thought to be a disaster, and their going from us to be their destruction; but they are at peace. For though in the sight of others they were punished, their hope is full of immortality. Having been disciplined a little, they will receive great good, because God tested them and found them worthy of himself; like gold in the furnace he tried them, and like a sacrificial burnt offering he accepted them. In the time of their visitation they will shine forth, and will run like sparks through the stubble. They will govern nations and rule over peoples, and the Lord will reign over them forever. Those who trust in him will understand truth, and the faithful will abide with him in love, because grace and mercy are upon his holy ones, and he watches over his elect.

Reader  Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.
People  Thanks be to God.
Psalm 84: 1, 2, 4 sung by choir in German

Ein deutsches Requiem, J. Brahms
Choir of St. Paul’s

Wie lieblich sind deine Wohnungen, Herr Zebaoth!
Meine Seele verlanget und sehnet sich nach den Vorhöfen des Herrn;
mein Leib und Seele freuen sich in dem lebendigen Gott.
How lovely are your dwellings, O Lord of hosts!
My soul yearns and longs for the courts of the Lord;
my body and soul rejoice in the living God.

Wohl denen, die in deinem Hause wohnen,
die loben dich immerdar.
Blessed are those who dwell in your house,
those who praise you forever more.

The Holy Gospel

John 5: 24-27

Jesus said, “Very truly, I tell you, anyone who hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life, and does not come under judgment, but has passed from death to life.

“Very truly, I tell you, the hour is coming, and is now here, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live. For just as the Father has life in himself, so he has granted the Son also to have life in himself; and he has given him authority to execute judgment, because he is the Son of Man.”

After the reading, the reader says

Reader   Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.
People   Thanks be to God.

A Prayer for Mission

Said by all

Gracious and loving God, help us this day to understand and celebrate your dream for the world, to be transformed in Jesus’ love, and to use our gifts to make a difference for others.

Amen.

The Sermon

The Rev. Thomas Skillings
Anthem sung by choir in German

Quartet: Elizabeth Kimble, Akane Ota, David Kurtenbach, Jason Harvey
Soprano Soloist: Natalie Dias

Ihr habt nun Traurigkeit; aber ich will euch wieder sehen und euer Herz soll sich freuen und eure Freude soll niemand von euch nehmen.
You now have sorrow; but I want to see you again
And your heart shall rejoice and no one shall take your joy from you.

Sehet mich an: Ich habe eine kleine Zeit Mühe und Arbeit gehabt, und habe grossen Trost gefunden.
Look upon me: I have toiled and labored a brief time,
And now I have found great comfort.

Ich will euch trösten, wie einen seine Mutter tröstet.
I want to comfort you, as one is comforted by his mother.

~ John 16:22; Ecclesiasticus 51:35; Isaiah 66:13

The Prayers for the Departed

The Leader and People pray responsively.

God of mercy, Lord of life, you have made us in your image to reflect your truth and light:
we give you thanks for all those we remember today, for the grace and mercy they received from you, for all that was good in their lives, for the memories we treasure today. We especially remember …

The Celebrant names those on our All Souls’ List.

and for those whom you wish to remember.

The people are invited to add their own prayers silently or aloud.

Lord, in your mercy
Hear our prayer.

You promised eternal life to those who believe. Remember for good your servants as we remember them this day. Bring all who rest in Christ into the fullness of your kingdom where sins have been forgiven and death is no more.

Lord, in your mercy
Hear our prayer.

Your will is that none should be lost. Gather into your graceful arms those who did not believe, and those whose faith is known to you alone, that they may know your peace and life.

Lord, in your mercy
Hear our prayer.
Your mighty power brings joy out of grief and life out of death. Look in mercy on all who mourn. Give them patient faith in times of darkness. Strengthen them with the knowledge of your love.

Lord, in your mercy
Hear our prayer.

You are tender towards your children and your mercy is over all your works. Heal memories of hurt and failure. Give us the wisdom and grace to use aright the time that is left to us here on earth, to turn to Christ and follow in his steps in the way that leads to everlasting life.

Lord, in your mercy
Hear our prayer.

Your will is that of reconciliation for all peoples. As we remember veterans this weekend, we remember for good all those who have died in the service of their country.

Lord, in your mercy
Hear our prayer.

God of mercy, entrusting into your hands all that you have made and rejoicing in our communion with all your faithful people, we make our prayers through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Lord’s Prayer

We gather all the concerns on our hearts, spoken and silent, and now we say aloud as one voice, the prayer Jesus taught us to pray:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

The priest blesses the people.

Commendation

Give rest O Christ, to your servants with your saints
Where sorrow and pain are no more, but life everlasting.

Anthem  sung by choir in German

Selig sind die Toten, die in dem Herren sterben von nun an.

Ja, der Geist spricht, dass sie ruhen von ihrer Arbeit, denn ihre Werke folgen ihnen nach.

Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on.

Yea, the Spirit says that they may rest from their labor, for their works follow after them.

MUSIC NOTE by Susan Jane Matthews, Director of Music

Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. ~Matthew 5:4

Four movements from Ein deutsches Requiem (A German Requiem) by Johannes Brahms (1833-1897) are offered in this service for All Souls’ Sunday. This includes two new recordings: a virtual recording of IV. Wie lieblich sind deine Wohnungen (“How lovely is thy dwelling place”; Psalm 84) sung by the Choir of St. Paul’s from their homes and V. Ihr habt nun Traurigkeit (“You have now sorrow”) with soloist Natalie Dias, the latter videoed at St. Paul’s with St. Paul’s staff quartet. Archived recordings of the opening and closing choruses are heard from All Souls’ Sunday 2018, sung by the Choir of St. Paul’s and chamber orchestra.

Brahms composed the Requiem during the period 1857 to 1868, the fifth movement, Ihr habt nun Traurigkeit, with the tender soprano solo sung by Natalie Dias added last, most likely as a reflection on his mother’s death in 1865. A text from the prophet Isaiah is repeated throughout this movement: “I want to comfort you, as one is comforted by his mother.”

Rather than the traditional Latin text for the Requiem, Brahms created his libretto from scriptural texts, including the Psalms attributed to King David, the Beatitudes of Jesus (cited above), and the Revelation of John. Brahms evocatively juxtaposed passages from throughout the Bible and set them with timeless music, thus composing a musical icon through which we might begin to glimpse the divine in life and in death. St. Paul’s baritone and vestry member Jim Steichen writes that through his Requiem, Brahms “speaks in universalizing terms about the passage from life to death, and especially the nearness of death in the midst of life.”

The first and final movements frame the work with similar texts and musical themes, beginning with words of comfort to those who mourn the loss of loved ones (Matthew 5:4), and concluding with an assurance that the work of the blessed who die in the Lord lives on as they enter eternal rest. At the center of the Brahms Requiem is the joyous setting of Psalm 84, Wie lieblich sind deine Wohnungen, “How lovely are thy dwelling places.”

May all who mourn find comfort in this unique 2020 offering of the Brahms Ein deutsches Requiem.

HAPPENINGS AT ST. PAUL’S

Stewardship Update

As of November 3, 88 households have dedicated themselves to the financial well-being of St. Paul’s for 2021 by making a pledge commitment. Our pledge total to date from the 88 is $369,400. And, despite the challenges that surround us, 42 households have been able to increase their pledge, 38 kept the same pledging level as in the current year, and we have 4 new pledges. This is impressive indeed. Thank you!

Giving and generosity are an essential part of our shared Christian life. Giving generously can turn our hearts towards God and is an expression of God’s mercy and love to those in need.

If you have not yet had a chance to do so, we encourage you to return your pledge card today or click here to pledge online. If you would like us to resend this year’s pledge materials, please click here.

Over half of St. Paul’s 2020 operating income comes from faithful pledgers. For 2021, our total pledge income will need to increase by 17% through a combination of new pledging households and increased pledges to support the continuation of St. Paul’s current ministries and programs.

Together we can ensure that our community can continue on our Path of Faith.

With gratitude,
The St. Paul’s Stewardship Team

PS: Vestry members will be making follow up calls on Sunday, November 15—avoid the call and save the Vestry members time by making your pledge this week.

St. Paul’s Giving Tree Returns with a Twist

How will our Giving Tree with a Twist be different this year?

- There will not be tags on the Giving Tree — the Giving Tree will be virtual!
- We will not be helping specific families — but instead contributing to the broader Samaritan House efforts to provide holiday gifts and food to more than 2,000 households who will do a drive-by pick up from Samaritan House at a central location.
- We will not wrap or deliver or be Santa’s elves in a myriad of ways.
- And, we’ll be done before Thanksgiving!

Our deadline is Sunday, November 22 so that the “grab and go” holiday bags can be packed and ready for distribution to families who will be picking them up soon after Thanksgiving.

See below for how to purchase Gift Cards and/or warm jackets and coats for children and teens online:

❖ Target Gift Cards — we’ll be using a St. Paul’s Giving Tree page for online purchases of $25 Target Gift Cards which will be given to parents during the drive-through holiday distribution for purchasing a gift/gifts for their children. Here’s the link to the same online service that we used for St. Paul’s very successful Operation Backpack last summer: https://www.roonga.com/stpauls

❖ Warm jackets/coats for teens and children — all sizes are needed. You may use the St. Paul’s Giving Tree list that I’ve posted on Amazon if you wish or do your own online shopping. This link has my address in it for shipping. If you wish to use another vendor (GAP, Old Navy, Macys etc.), please do. To make it easier for you, please feel free to have what you choose shipped to Giving Tree c/o Busselle, 718 Occidental Avenue, San Mateo — note that it’s San Mateo — 94402. Here’s the link to the Amazon list that I’ve created for St. Paul’s Giving Tree: www.amazon.com/hz/wishlist/ls/2N1H868U1Z238?ref=wl_share

Grab and Go Advent Festival in a Bag!
Saturday, Nov. 28 • 3pm
Occidental Parking Lot

For decades, St. Paul's church held a beloved Advent Festival Coffee Hour on or right before The First Sunday of Advent in order for people to make an Advent wreath for their own personal prayers at home. This year the festival will be served up in a bag to "GRAB and GO!" Volunteers are gathering and putting together bags of all that's needed to make a beautiful Advent wreath. Each bag will be blessed in the church by the clergy. And will include prayers to say with your wreath as you light a candle each week.

November 29 is The First Sunday of Advent. Advent means "coming." In the Episcopal Church we observe four Sundays of intentional prayer and spiritual practice in order to prepare our hearts for the birth of the Christ Child. The Evergreen wreath with three purple and one pink candle serves as a symbol to call us into this special time of prayer and reflection. The simple ritual of lighting a candle and saying a prayer or reading helps to set aside the busyness or loneliness of this season and to receive the hope of the coming of Christ into our lives.

For more information email jgraham@stpaulsburlingame.org to contact The Rev. Julie Graham.

Tuesday Teens
November 10 • 4pm

Preteens (junior high school ages) and teens (high school ages) are invited to get to know other St. Paul teens. We will listen to one another's stories and learn more about ourselves and God. Zoom sessions are from 4pm to 5pm. In addition to monthly Zoom gatherings, socially distanced hikes and other outdoor activities are being arranged for those interested. If you are interested in participating, please email jsideco@stpaulsburlingame.org to contact Pastoral Associate Jocelyn A. Sideco.

A VIRTUAL Christmas Eve Pageant During a Pandemic

This pandemic is relentless and has made life hard. We need some light in this darkness.

Jane Palladino and Kate Luedtke are bringing us all some great light for Christmas Eve. Along with the crew of Grace Ghoorah, Ella Giere, Annelise Vander Lugt, Will Vander Lugt, Johnny Willey and Jessica Sobolik Willey, they are working hard to bring the pageant to our homes for our Christmas Eve worship.

We are so blessed that they initiated a call to me and Pastoral Associate Jocelyn Sideco with ideas to bring the pageant to life onscreen.

Now all we need are the actors to dramatize this powerful story of HOPE.

Sign up today! ALL young people needed. For more information email jgraham@stpaulsburlingame.org to contact The Rev. Julie Graham.

Toward an Undivided Life
Learn About and Participate in a Circle of Trust this Fall

What is it that moves you? To action, To tears. When is it that you feel most alive and purposeful? How does the Spirit work in you that brings life to the world around you? Parker Palmer laments that so many people get distracted and forgetful in the midst of the demands of living that they cease to live from their deepest values and priorities. He bemoans that people live divided lives.

You are invited to learn about and practice ways of reconnecting the soul and your role in ways that can recapture energy and direction for your life. Palmer has created a practice of community where members create a space for others to discover, claim and live out their deepest callings and commitments.

How to participate:
